

The unveiling of the Air Transport Auxiliary Memorial itinerary.
10th July 2010 at 1:00pm. Aquila Way , Hamble-le-Rice.

1:00pm St Andrews Pipe Band march and play along the Coopervision side of Hamble Lane. Complete their music opposite the Memorial

Speeches – short speeches about the memorial from those involved with its creation

BP view of the memorial

GE Aviation view of the memorial

Hamble-le-Rice Parish Council view of the memorial

Peter Garrod (ATA) view of the memorial

The Bugler will sound the last post

Standards lower

2 Minutes silence

Bugler sounds the awake

Standards rise

All those present from the ATA grasp either side of the memorial cover joined in the middle by Velcro, they pull and the material splits in half (ideally!)

Father John Travers from St Andrew's Church will bless the memorial

The laying of wreaths

1:35pm Joe Dible & Owen Watts fly past in Foster Wikner Wicko

The St Andrew's Pipe Band will pipe the route to the reception in the Hamble Village Memorial Hall

